

Early Educator: Christine Okoye

Date of Inspection: 22/09/21

Registration Inspection Report

Christine is so much fun to be around; she's bright, bubbly and full of laughter. Christine is passionate about children having an exciting and educational time when in her care, learning lots of skills in a warm and welcoming environment. She aims to give children many learning opportunities both indoors and outdoors and carefully plans her daily routine to ensure children get fresh air and exercise. Christine's garden gives children ample playing space for them to explore and she has lots of plans to develop this area further. Christine's creativity means that there is always various arts and crafts activities available; she loves getting messy with the children. Christine has worked with children for many years and has a wealth of experience - she has completed many childcare qualifications, including a degree.
