

Early Educator: Jessica Hussey

Date of Inspection: 15/09/21

Registration Inspection Report

Jessica is a wonderful Early Educator who is passionate about children reaching their potential in her care. She understands that every child is unique and learns at their own pace. Jessica spends lots of time researching activities, reading about child development and thinking about the different ways children learn. She has a keen interest in Montessori teaching methods and understands the importance of children becoming independent learners. Jessica is a keen gardener and loves the outdoors, she plans carefully opportunities for children to learn through nature and has lots of ideas for fun activities in the local community. One of Jessica's interests is arts and crafts, she encourages children to be creative and have their own ideas. Her passion to support children to be creative shines through.
