

Early Educator: Rina Morgan

Date of Inspection: 28/09/21

Registration Inspection Report

Rina is a calm, patient and knowledgeable educator. She has a great vision for her setting and loves to be outdoors exploring with the children. Rina's garden allows for children to explore and learn in all weathers. Splashing in puddles and visiting the park are some of Rina's favourite activities. Rina is kind, caring and is passionate about teaching children to be kind, caring and tolerant of others. She aims to help children to be independent and clearly understands the skill children need to succeed in their learning. Rina is dedicated to creating strong relationships with children so that they feel safe, secure and loved in her care. She also prides herself on good open communication with parents so that they are fully included in their child's day.
