Registration Inspection Report

Tasha has a wonderful calm manner and she and her two young children are looking forward to welcoming families into their home. Tasha is extremely thoughtful, hardworking and sensitive to the needs of others. She is able to offer a tranquil and well thought out environment and her shared garden area is adjacent to beautiful woods and natural spaces. Tasha loves Forest School and will certainly be implementing aspects of this in her daily planning.

She is passionate about her role and is going to offer a wealth of experiences related to exploring aspects of the EYFS through play. She is an advocate of following a healthy lifestyle including healthy eating your child will most certainly have fun exploring the environments both indoors and out. Tasha will share with you the daily activities on offer, which will include a range of fun and exciting activities based on the needs of all of the children.
